Judging

1. Horsemanship: All horses and tack will be provided for the horsemanship competition. Each contestant will draw two horses to ride; one for railwork and one for the pattern furnished by the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant. No one will be allowed to ride the same horse in both rounds. Judges will answer any questions prior to the start of the Horsemanship competition. See pattern.
2. Speech: Each contestant is required to give an extemporaneous speech. Contestants will be sequestered in order to not give away the speech topics. Each contestant will select ONE of three topics and have three (3) minutes to prepare and one and a half (1.5) minutes to present the speech. Judging is based on content, delivery and the time allotted for the presentation.
3. Interviews: Each contestant will have three private interviews in the categories of Horsemanship, Personality and Appearance. They may also be interviewed as a group if the judges so desire.
4. Extemporaneous Questions: Extemporaneous questions will be asked of each contestant during pageant functions. Questions may relate to the sport of rodeo, current events, personality, appearance, and/or basic horsemanship.
5. Modeling: Contestants will model a variety of fashions, as well as their own dress, at the Fashion Show.
6. Photogenic: Three (3) to Four (4) photos of each girl will be taken by the official pageant photographer (time TBD) then judged for the Photogenic Award. (Subject to Change) Entry Requirements – Postmark Deadline May 1, 2017

Other Pageant Requirements

1. All contestants are required to stay at the host hotel, Hilton San Antonio Airport, The cost of contestant lodging is included in the entry fee.
2. All contestants will be assigned to a chaperone and must stay with the chaperone, unless otherwise notified. Contestants may visit with parents during Free Time only. During judging and when you are with your chaperone, please refrain from visiting with your parents. Remember to bring what clothes you need as you cannot be running back and forth to your parents rooms to pick up things that you forgot. All cleaning, messages, etc. have to be channeled through the head chaperones' room. All this will be discussed at length during orientation.
3. Parents are more than welcome to stay at the host hotel; however, the rooms will go fast and we suggest that you make your reservations early. To receive the negotiated rate, please inform the hotel that you will be there for the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant.
4. Contestants must register in the lobby of the hotel at the designated time on the pageant schedule.
5. Parents are urged to attend all "Open" functions, such as breakfasts and luncheons that are posted. Tickets may be purchased after orientation on the first day of the pageant in the Parent Hospitality

Room.

6. Contestants are REQUIRED to attend the Awards Breakfast (and be properly dressed) the morning after coronation. Any contestant that leaves without permission will forfeit all awards and their right to participate in the pageant in the future.
