GENERAL RULES

As Miss Rodeo Texas, you are expected to adhere to the following rules:

1. Treat the title of Miss Rodeo Texas with the same level of respect, integrity, professionalism, and hard work ethic you would with a traditional employer. Please remember you interviewed for the title knowing the rules and expectations that come with it.
2. Always act appropriately and professionally.
3. It is not all about you. Show GENUINE interest in others.
4. Respect everyone! Always follow the Golden Rule: Treat others as you want to be treated.
5. Be early to appearances and check in with the necessary individuals upon arrival. If you are late, you will be fined $50 per offense. See the Consequence Matrix for habitual tardiness.

6. If you are going to be late for any reason, call your contact for the appearance to make them aware then call the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator immediately. If there is no answer you must leave a message to document the attempt.
7. The only acceptable reason for canceling an Appearance is a death in your immediate family. Immediate family includes your father, mother, siblings, and grandparents. This is a one-year commitment by you and turning down Appearances for personal reasons can affect the future of MRTI. You are doing more than the queen before you because of the legacy that each former leaves behind.
8. Always leave and arrive for an Appearance dressed in appropriate attire including but not limited to crown and banner, with hair and makeup done, and nails manicured. The same applies even when you are not in your queen attire. People know who you are and expect you to always look your best.
9. Wardrobe including jewelry and accessories must be approved by the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator no less than 48 hours prior to an Appearance.
10. Try to wear brands that are Miss Rodeo Texas sponsors. If exclusive sponsor agreements are signed during the year, you will be provided a supplemental acknowledgment to sign.
11. Straight hair or braids are not allowed for Appearances. If your hair begins to fall, pull it back and secure it with a clip. Always carry extra clips, hair ties, bobby pins, brush, and hair spray.
12. Check your make up frequently, especially in the heat and after eating. Take extra makeup and lipstick for touch ups as needed.
13. Always take extra clothing and banners for all occasions as you never know when a sponsor might have a surprise appearance for you, or something may happen to the clothing you are wearing. No appearance may be made in denim, except for rodeos and must be dark denim, unless approved by the State Director and/or State Coordinator.
14. Be prepared for all types of weather conditions and activities. You may not always know what is included in your Appearances.
15. Always have plenty of autograph photo pads, sharpies, camera, etc. with you always. If you run out, that is a negative reflection on MRTI and you. Being organized and prepared is your responsibility, no one else's.
16. Have a flag boot with you at all Appearances.
17. Get to know the stock contractors. They are a great advocate to help get you invited to other rodeos. If you work hard for them, they will want you at their other rodeos. Sometimes this may also help get additional sponsors.
18. Do not complain about anything to anyone especially sponsors, committee members, hosts, other queens, etc. Negative comments travel fast and reflect poorly on you as a person, and MRTI.
19. Be the first to tell the State Director and/or State Coordinator if anything happens which could be viewed negatively by others. It is always best for people to hear from you before hearing from someone else.

20. Always be appreciative and thankful to sponsors, hosts, committees, etc. and do not forget to thank them for meals, accommodations, paying your appearance fees, transportation, etc. Thank you notes are due within one week of your appearance date and/or departure from the event. If you are traveling out of state, carry a few small gifts from Texas that you can pass out as a token of your appreciation.
21. Remember you are THE Rodeo Queen for the entire state of Texas. You should set the bar high for other, and future, rodeo queens. They look up to you and follow your lead.
22. Be appreciative of any gifts. Do not expect or ask for anything. Just because someone else receives a gift, it does not mean that you will too.
23. Be prompt in returning phone calls, texts, emails, etc. to your directors or any other pageant volunteers. Do your best to return calls and text within a few hours and emails within twenty-four yours. We understand your priority is Appearances, however, when not at an appearance, quick communication is expected.
24. You will receive constructive criticism on a regular basis. Please remember this is for your benefit. We want you to succeed in your year and throughout life. It is not to pick on you and give you any grief or hurt your feelings.
25. Always ask questions if you are unsure of anything. No question is stupid unless it is not asked. It is better to ask than get in trouble later.
26. Be sure to mingle with the crowd, visit with children and elderly, offer to sign autographs without being asked or told, etc. Always remember, going above and beyond with the little things will set you apart and leave a positive impression.
27. You are expected to attend any fundraiser MRTI organizes throughout the year unless you are booked for an official MRT Appearance.
28. You may have your own fundraiser but dates, details, etc. must go through the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator so that it does not conflict with official appearances or other MRTI events. The money raised must also go through the MRTI checking account and is disbursed at the MRT State Director's and/or State Coordinator's discretion. Up to twenty percent of funds collected may be retained by MRTI.
29. Keep a daily journal and/or day planner. Include any necessary information for Appearances such as contacts, phone numbers, email addresses, timeline of duties, etc.
30. Do not accept any checks in your name or funds sent to you by electronic means. All money must go through MRTI.
31. Make sure your vehicle is not parked at locations that are inappropriate or times that are inappropriate.
32. Make sure you always keep your vehicle clean whether it was furnished for you to use or is your personal vehicle. If a vehicle is provided for you, make sure to return it in the same condition it was received.
33. Know state laws. Never text and drive and use your cell phone/Bluetooth with caution while driving.

34. Do not use your cell phone at an event in public. Do not carry your cell phone in your back pocket. If necessary, excuse yourself. The only exception is your cell phone may be used for photos or live feeds but use discretion.
35. Keep yourself safe.
36. Do not engage in “partying” of any sort.
37. Please make sure you ALWAYS talk positively and professionally about the organizations and events you were, or are, booked for.
38. Do not use your title for free entrance to concerts, or other events to which you were not specifically invited.
39. The home base for all Appearances is San Antonio, therefore, all travel arrangements and mileage will be based from there unless otherwise approved or instructed by the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator.
40. You must follow Texas Law on liability insurance coverage for any vehicle used during your reign unless the use of a motor vehicle or trailer is gifted to you as Miss Rodeo Texas then you must provide full coverage insurance at your expense covering those vehicles for said term.
41. You may not cohabit with anyone during your reign unless specifically authorized by the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator.
42. You may not wear the crown, banner, or buckle from any other title or organization during your term as Miss Rodeo Texas.
43. Always check in with the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator before leaving for an Appearance, when you leave an Appearance, and when you reach your destination. You can leave messages by voicemail or text.
44. All texts and emails must be a group text or email including both the MRT State Director and State Coordinator, and anyone else requested by those two.
45. You should do your best to have healthy habits and remain at a similar physique from crowning throughout your reign.
46. You may be asked to discontinue using your personal social media accounts during your reign. If the MRT State Director, MRT State Coordinator, and/or MRT Board deems this necessary, please discontinue use immediately.
47. All media requests including photos must go through the MRT State Director, MRT State Coordinator, and/or MRT Media Director. This is to protect you. There are many laws regarding photo usage and proper credits, and it is the job of those listed to ensure we are following regulations. If a media or photo request is presented to you, forward it to the three individuals listed.
48. Do not get upset over photos used throughout your reign. Not all of them will be your favorite, but it is important to remember they were chosen for a reason and only photos we feel portray you and MRTI in a positive light are selected.
49. If a monthly newsletter is being sent out, it is imperative you work closely with the creator to provide content and photos by the specified deadline.

50. Once your reign is complete, do not ask for a job from any MRT sponsors, MRT Board members, and/or MRT Ambassadors/pageant committee. However, if they approach you, it is your choice whether to accept the offer.
51. Any negative behavior not previously listed will not be tolerated, including but not limited to gossip, vulgar language, inappropriate touching of others, screaming/yelling or arguing in public, eye rolling, foot stomping, heavy sighs, etc.
52. You must continue to meet all Eligibility Requirements throughout your reign.

MISS RODEO AMERICA PAGEANT

Miss Rodeo Texas must represent Texas at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant. Expectations are as follows:

1. Your Miss Rodeo America application, photos, and other requirements must be approved by the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator and meet the specified deadline(s). There are no exceptions or excuses.
2. Suggestions are offered for preparation procedures for the Miss Rodeo America Pageant, and it is highly recommended that you follow them if you want to do your best. Study all material available and take advantage of all hands-on assistance offered.
3. Your wardrobe for the Miss Rodeo America Pageant must be approved by the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator.

MISS RODEO TEXAS PAGEANT

Miss Rodeo Texas must appear and take part in the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant the year following your crowning. Expectations are as follows:

1. You are an Ambassador at the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant. You will be expected to attend all scheduled events without complaining. You are expected to stay positive during the Pageant. You are not to talk negatively about any competitor or competitor's family.
2. You are a verbal resource for all contestants that are running for the title of Miss Rodeo Texas either by phone, email, or text with general questions. Please refer them to the MRT State Director, State Coordinator or MRT Pageant Director. You are always to stay impartial and professional, before, during, and after the competition.
3. You are to report any misconduct by a contestant to a member of the Miss Rodeo Texas Executive Board immediately.
4. You are not to interfere with any judging aspects of the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant.
5. Always keep a smile on your face and a good head on your shoulders during the Pageant as it can be a stressful time. The schedule is full, and expectations are high as you are amid your successor being named. Showing lack of respect to the process shows disrespect to the title in which you hold and the crown that is on your hat.

6. Your wardrobe must be approved by the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator no less than one week prior to the MRT Pageant.
7. Make sure you are early to all events and/or scheduled gathering times. Please stay focused and keep everything positive.
8. You are responsible for selling a minimum of two pages of advertisements for the Miss Rodeo Texas Program Book unless otherwise determined by the MRTI Board. This is typically a huge fundraiser for MRTI and helps fund travel expenses and more for Miss Rodeo Texas. Ads and money are due no later than May 15th. See the Miss Rodeo Texas website for additional details.
9. You are responsible for selling a minimum of 100 donation tickets. This is another great fundraiser for the organization that helps us operate and support Miss Rodeo Texas.
10. Program book cover photos for consideration by MRTI must be submitted to the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator no later than May 1st.
11. Your photo for the former page in the program book must be submitted to the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator for approval no later than May 1st. Upon approval, please email the photo to MRtads@yahoo.com.
12. You must email your bio to the MRT State Director and MRT Pageant Director by May 15th.
13. You are required to record a farewell speech (maximum of 2 minutes) and send it to the MRT State Director and MRT Pageant Director no later than June 1st. This will allow them time to approve and ask for any changes deemed necessary. Please remember that two minutes is not much time which makes it difficult to thank everyone that has helped along the way. Be careful in calling out specific individuals outside of your family and immediate circle as feelings get hurt easily if someone feels they are left out. Please try to record in a studio to help eliminate background noise and provide a professional quality sound. If a studio is not available, record in a quiet place. If you want a song to play in the background, it must be edited to your liking if necessary and submitted in a separate file no later than June 1st so it can be overlaid by the sound technician. If the song is not received by the deadline, the sound technician will choose the song that will play in the background. All files must be submitted in a MP3 format.

MRTI SOCIAL MEDIA

All Miss Rodeo Texas social media accounts are the property of MRTI. They exist to reflect positively on the MRTI organization itself and to promote the organization and its partners, rather than an individual MRT herself. These accounts are to be handled with the utmost responsibility, timeliness, and respect. MRT's involvement with ALL social media must always reflect these qualities. It is not MRT's job to understand the ins and outs of social media. Instead, MRT should prepare to be creative and collaborative to make the accounts successful.

Personal Use of Social Media:

To allow for continuity and limit confusion, it is recommended the current titleholder limit all types of social media accounts, including but not limited to personal Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, Snapchat and Twitter. During the time of your reign, you may be required to deactivate/do not use your social media accounts, for the entirety of your reign. It is strongly recommended that personal Instagram accounts are made to be private.

Posting to MRT Social Media:

To maintain the integrity of all social media accounts, only MRTI Social Media Director, Executive Director and select Executive Board members will be Administrators. Miss Rodeo Texas will act as an editor on the account. However, these privileges may be revoked at any time if the titleholder fails to follow MRTI social media guidelines or if MRTI deems it necessary to revoke such privileges for any reason.

Social Media Marketing Plan:

At the end of every month MRT will meet with the MRTI Social Media Director, via Zoom to discuss the next month's social media strategy. This will include understanding all sponsorship responsibilities as well as planning out organic content. MRT should think of content themes and platforms that interest her and present them to the Social Media Director. These could include Women's Month, Beef Advocacy, Rodeo Knowledge, etc. While the MRT social media is owned by MRTI, it can be a positive reflection of the current titleholder and her passions. MRT will work with the MRTI Social Media Director to create fun and engaging content such as:

1. Videos
2. Photography
3. Reels / Tik Toks

As well as formulating a content curation and reposting schedule. MRT will assist the MRTI Social Media Director in finding posts that would make sense to repost on MRT social channels. This content includes posts from:

1. PRCA
2. Local Titleholders / Pageants
3. Sponsors
4. Former MRTs and MRT Pageant Alumni
5. Rodeo Contestants

6. Western Industry and Lifestyle Channels

Social Media Execution:

Once the plan is in place, the Social Media Director will plan out the month's content in the Google Doc "MRT Content Calendar." This will serve as the posting schedule for the month. MRT will thoughtfully plan content captured with the assistance of the Social Media Director. Since MRT travels alone at times, it will be her responsibility to capture the content professionally, and in enough time to post on the designated day. This process may include:

1. Filming or taking photographs
2. Asking other "talent" to be in content
3. Sending content to Social Media Director via Dropbox in enough time for editing

It is MRT's job to remain in constant communication with the Social Media Director, ensuring that all posts are timely and well done. All content and copy must be approved, prior to posting. MRT will text the MRTI Social Media Director with copy and content to approve. The two will work together to arrange posting of the content to ensure a successful cadence. If MRT is on the road and cannot post, the Social Media Director is there to assist and ease the burden of posting. However, when possible, future scheduling of posts is highly recommended. MRTI knows that life happens and sometimes posts need to move on the calendar; however, this should be limited.

The MRTI Social Media Director will work to create creative content themes for MRT to complete. It is imperative that the titleholder puts their best efforts to make the content fun and exciting.

Social media content does not happen, without MRT. It is imperative that the titleholder makes social media a foremost aspect of their reign.

Social Media Guidelines: Facebook | Instagram | Tik Tok | Twitter | YouTube | Snapchat

Social media posts may be modified in accordance with the following guidelines.

1. Write professionally, use property grammar and spelling. MRTI Social Media Director will approve copy with the use of Grammarly.
2. MRT may not personally message any sponsors or any individual contact for sponsorships through MRT social media.
3. No suggestive photos or content should ever be posted.
4. Absolutely no photos may be taken with alcohol.
5. Absolutely no photo may be taken in a swimsuit or inappropriate clothing.

6. Absolutely no photo or videos in title (hat and crown) in inappropriate situations, i.e., concerts at Rodeo Houston.
7. All photos must be appropriate for young girls who are beginning rodeo queening, in other words, “G-rated” only. No “booty-shaking or breasts...use good judgment always. (Including Facebook and Instagram stories.)
8. Comments should be monitored for pertinence. No inappropriate or suggestive comments should be allowed to remain. MRT will work with the MRTI Social Media Director to delete comments and block users if necessary.
9. No comments from a significant other, implicating a relationship.
10. Profile picture, cover photo, description, password, or account identification information may only be changed by the MRTI Social Media Director, MRTI State Director or MRTI State Coordinator.
11. Sponsors will only be tagged in sponsored posts within posted content. Sponsors should not be tagged otherwise.
12. Hashtags are only pertinent to Instagram and rarely necessary. Hashtags will only be used if desired by the sponsor.
13. When taking video, always do so with your camera vertical, in good lighting, and in a place where noise is limited.
14. Facebook and Instagram stories are a great tool but like regular posts, they must be approved before posting.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS

You could not have become Miss Rodeo Texas without the help of your family and friends. The MRT Board recognizes the need for these special people in your life but also wants to remind you of the role they should take during your reign:

1. They may not travel with you to Appearances or attend Appearances without prior approval from the MRT State Director and/or State Coordinator.
2. They should not expect to receive free meals or accommodations if allowed to attend an Appearance with you.
3. They should stay in the background as YOU are Miss Rodeo Texas with duties and obligations to fulfill while they are a supporter at the event.
4. It is YOUR responsibility to communicate with contacts and make arrangements as necessary for Appearances, not family member’s or friend’s.
5. You may not post photos of and/or make references to your significant other on social media during your reign.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

You are the face of Miss Rodeo Texas, and you must answer to the MRTI Board of Directors. They are here to support you and will help you have a successful experience. They work diligently to ensure you have a positive and fulfilling reign. If you receive communication from any MRTI Board Member, you are expected to return the message promptly. Phone calls and/or text messages should be returned within a few hours and emails within 24 hours. If you are attending an Appearance at the time a message is received, please return the message when the Appearance is over or the next morning as necessary to be respectful of time. Please use common sense based on the urgency and content of the message.

The following matrix details the consequences for unmet expectations by Miss Rodeo Texas. Please familiarize yourself with this matrix. Failure to abide by the rules outlined in this handbook, Contract, or any other MRT official document(s) may result in termination of your contract. Any rule not specifically addressed in the Consequence Matrix will be handled like similar offenses based on severity as deemed appropriate by the MRT State Director, MRT State Coordinator, and/or MRT Board of Directors.
